

East Yorkshire Group

On 30th September 2017 the East Yorkshire Group of the Hardy Plant Society will be hosting an Annual Lecture Day at Bishop Burton College, Beverley, HU17 8QG. The cost will be £25 with an optional Buffet Lunch at £12. (space for eating your pack-ups will be available)

Programme: 'Hardy Plants in a Changing Environment'

0900 – 0945	Registration
0945 – 1000	Introduction
1000 - 1100	Alastair Fitter - 'When will it Flower? Phenology in a changing Climate'
1100 – 1130	Coffee/tea
1130 – 1230	Lizzie Balmforth – 'Planting Combinations at Mt.St John'
1230 – 1400	Lunch plus opportunity to visit walled garden
1400 – 1500	John Grimshaw – 'What is a Perennial?'
1500 - 1530	Tea/coffee
1530 – 1630	Matthew Wilson – 'New gardening: How to garden in a Changing Climate'
1630 – 1645	Plenary
Plant sales	0900 -0945, 1100- 1130, 1230 – 1400, 1500 – 1530

Four Members have offered to open their gardens (free) on the Friday and Sunday.

BOOKING FORM (Block Capitals Please)

Name:.....HPS Membership No:.....

HPS Group.....

Address:.....

..... Postcode:.....

Email:..... Telephone No.....

Please sendHPS tickets @ £25 &Buffet Lunch tickets @ £12

I enclose a cheque made payable to East Yorkshire HPS group for £ together with a SAE for tickets and further details.

Please return to: Keith Scott, 31 Park Avenue, Hull, HU5 3EW. Tel: 01482 494276