

The Hardy Plant Society was formed to foster interest in hardy herbaceous plants. It aims to give information about the wealth of both well- and little-known plants, and to ensure that all worthy plants remain in cultivation and have the widest possible distribution.

President: Roy Lancaster

Vice Presidents:

Dilys Davies and Tony Lord

All communications, including membership enquiries, should be sent to:

Clare Powell, The Administrator
15 Basepoint Business Centre
Crab Apple Way
Evesham WR11 1GP

01386 710317

admin@hardy-plant.org.uk

Advertising enquiries to
The Administrator

The editor reserves the right to edit contributions as necessary. The opinions expressed by authors and advertisers are not specifically endorsed by the HPS. Illustrations as acknowledged. Although all reasonable care is taken, the HPS cannot accept responsibility for unsolicited material.

Collection and editorial matter
©The Hardy Plant Society 2019

ISSN: 0969-1901

Charity No. 208080

Typeset and printed by
Vale Press, Broadway

Contents

President's perspective – plants, people, places	3	The Beth Chatto Symposium: Ecological planting in the 21st century	46
Roy Lancaster		Idealised interpretations of nature, or simply a practical, cost-effective solution for public spaces?
How will climate change affect our gardens, and what can we do?	10	Colin Skelly
The evidence; the threat; the implications; and how we gardeners can contribute to stopping it.		Herbaceous perennials – how to make them shine	49
Timothy Riggs		After a study trip to gardens in the Netherlands and Germany, new methods of maintenance and cultivation are tried out at Kew.
A few things you might not know about the Greenhouse Effect & Global Warming	18	Lucy Bell & Maija Ross
Derek Cooper		The wonders of New Zealand flora	53
The good, the bad, and the unknown – tales from the HPS Conservation Scheme	19	Why and how the plants are so fascinatingly different.
Commercial pressures mean that many good, garden-worthy plants are in need of conservation if they are to continue to be available to gardeners.		William Stanger
Jan Vaughan		Not losing the plot	58
Narcissus 'Weardale Perfection' – a tale of discovery, loss and resurrection	23	Making a new garden 1: the East Anglian coastal challenge.
Peter Williams		Gordon James
Choosing the best plants	30	Of weeds, winds, water and wildlife	65
The RHS trials which help us pick the best plants for local conditions.		Making a new garden 2: the Outer Hebrides experiment.
Bob Brown		Judy Harry
Experiments with Echinacea	33	The learning curve	73
Fifteen years of breeding coneflowers have taught Rob to be totally ruthless!		Val Bourne
Rob Cole
Photographic competition 2018	40
Brian Hackett
HPS Champion: Sandra Hartley	43
More questions and answers from the HPS Advisory Service	44
Emma Reece

All submissions to the editor
Souren Ala
editor@hardy-plant.org.uk

01635 298131
2 Kennel Cottages
Hannington
Tadley
Hampshire RG26 5TX

Front Cover

Narcissus 'Weardale Perfection' back at home in the churchyard of St Mary and St Stephen in Wolsingham, Co. Durham.

©Peter Williams